

RECEIVERS HAD HIM ARRESTED

William C. Barnett Locked Up on Warrant Charging Grand Larceny.

William C. Barnett, thirty-four years of age, was arrested yesterday by Captain of Detectives McMahon and Detective Atkinson on the charge of grand larceny. The prisoner, who was manager of Bernard's Hardware & Company, Fifth and Broad streets, was taken in custody on a warrant sworn out by J. C. Wynn and Arthur H. Cannon, receivers of the French company, alleged bankrupt, which operates Bernard, Frances & Co.

Barnett is said to be short in his accounts to the amount of $500. The alleged larceny was discovered when the receivers had the accounts of this store checked and found that numerous small sums, which aggregated the amount of $500, had been made and never entered upon the books.

Yesterday morning Mr. Cannon visited Captain McMahon and after presenting the case he said that he had information that Barnett was preparing to leave the city. The detective advised him to swear out a warrant for his arrest.

He was locked up at the Second Police station and when taken to his cell last night declined to make any statement. He has retained Gilbert N. Pollock as counsel.

FARMER KICKED BY YOUNG HORSE

Found by Neighbor Lying in Pool of His Own Blood.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Winchester, Va., September 7.—A farmer and his wife of yesterday morning found the body of a young horse lying in a pool of blood in a field near the house of the farmer. The horse was found by a neighbor who had been looking for a cow. Since the death of the horse, Mrs. Caroline Baker, several months ago, Mr. Baker had been living alone, and but for the timely arrival of Mr. Carpenter, the aged and feeble farmer would have been alone. ## SHOOTS MAN HE WENT TO ARREST

Acting Deputy Then Takes Remains to Staunton—Officer Not Blamed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Staunton, Va., September 7.—J. C. Darnall, sworn in as sheriff, will as deputy sheriff to go to Cragsville and bring back dead or alive Warren Tomlinson, who had been threatening to kill Little Loeck, fifteen years old, who had refused to marry him, went to Cragsville at midnight, and Tomlinson in the road, told him to consider himself under arrest, and when Tomlinson attempted to draw a revolver, shot him with a forty-four caliber revolver through the heart, causing his death within five minutes. He then closed his eyes, laid him out on him in a coffin and brought the body to Staunton tonight, where an inquest was held.

Officers at Cragsville were afraid to attempt to arrest Tomlinson, but one of them pointed him out to Darnall. The sheriff has a number of deputies, but for some reason they were not required to undertake the job and Darnall, an outsider, was summoned. Darnall is a member of the Staunton Blues and a friend with rifle and revolver. His business is selling fruit trees. He has a family.

Tomlinson was about thirty-two years old and a stationary engineer at the cement works. No attempt has been made to hold Darnall for the killing, and no blame is attached to him. The girl has been in hiding for a week for fear of being killed.

HOT WEEK CLOSES WITH RECORD OF 94

Broiling Weather Yesterday Placed Richmond Third in Nation's Heat Scale.

At Chimborazo, 94, on the street, 99. This was yesterday's thermal record, as expressed by the United States Weather Bureau station and the clock in Capitol Square. Not so bad as last Sunday by 22 degrees, but up with the hottest of them since. The sun beat down all day from a cloudless sky, and to make matters worse, the dinky six-mile wind which the Weather Bureau says was blowing came straight from the Gulf of Mexico.

As upon the other hot days of the week, it began broiling early in the morning and continued that way without intermission until nightfall. At 12 o'clock noon the thermometer registered 90 on the hilltops and five degrees more on the street. Three hours later the mercury had climbed another degree, reaching the high mark at 94 degrees shortly before 4 o'clock. At 8 o'clock reading the official reading showed that the city was still far from cool under a temperature of 87.

Closes Warm Week. Yesterday ended a week which began last Sunday with a temperature of 96.2, the hottest September 1 ever recorded by the local Weather Bureau. On September 2 the thermometer dropped to 91, with little apparent diminution in the heat wave. The worst that September 3 could do was 89, which was still far from cool, but on the day following, September 4, there was a decided drop to 78. That was Wednesday, the coolest day of the week. Thursday saw the mercury climb back to 89, while Friday, with a reading of 85, was one of the hottest September days on record.

Oklahoma, where the thermometer reached 98, bore off the record yesterday as the warmest spot in the United States. Kansas City came next with 96, and Richmond, Louisville, St. Louis and New Orleans stood as the third hottest cities in the country, with heat records of 91.

RIVAL CANDIDATES IN JOINT DEBATE

Turnbull and Watson Address Large Gathering of Voters at Clarksville.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Clarksville, Va., September 7.—A large gathering of voters of the Fourth Congressional District met at Clarksville this afternoon to hear the joint discussion between Congressman Robert Turnbull and his opponent, Judge W. A. Watson. There were present representative voters from almost every county in the district. The meeting was called to order by Thomas H. Owen, precinct chairman. Thomas N. Williams, in a speech highly commendatory of Mr. Turnbull, introduced him to the audience. In a strong knock of some four hours duration he reviewed his record for the past two sessions. He referred to the charges that have been made broadcast throughout the district that he had accomplished nothing during his term of service, pointing to his committee appointments, to the valuable work of these committees and to the many bills of public interest in the enactment of which he had taken a part.

Judge Henry Wood in a few words introduced Judge Watson to the audience. Judge Watson began his address by paying his respects to the man who introduced Mr. Turnbull, alluding to the fact that Mr. Turnbull, although from the same district, had departed from the usual courtesy in making a verbal attack upon him. He stated that after such action on the part of this gentleman, he was not surprised that the voters of Montgomery had retired him from public life.

Mr. Watson made an able address, claiming that the incumbent had accomplished practically nothing for the people of his district, that of fifteen bills

His record showed no government appropriation, no public building and not even the establishment of a mail route.
